ILLINOIS BENEDICTINE COLLEGE

PROLOGUE

As another school year comes to an end, it is easy to look back on ones' mind and remember the happenings of the past year. But what of next year or the year after that? Many memories will undoubtedly fade with age or be lost in the confusion of ensuing years. Graduating seniors may find it especially hard to reminisce the times they encountered in their last year at I.B.C., now that they are beginning another stage of their lives.

So how does one sum up a year? How does one go about putting down on paper the memories, sports, special events and visions of everyday life at I.B.C.?

We, of the yearbook staff, have tried to accomplish this seemingly insurmountable task and present here, to the students and faculty the best of our combined abilities (in the limited space allotted us). If anything has been accidentally omitted, we wish to voice our sincerest apologies.

In a game marred by costly fumbles and untimely interceptions, the IBC Eagles dropped their Homecoming contest to Eureka 17-14. Despite two touchdown passes from Bill Calahan to Pete Mastandrea and Frank Riley, along with a fine defensive exhibition in the closing minutes, the Red Devils of Eureka were still able to edge by our Eagles.

It was an exciting game played on a muddy field, under overcast skies, before a receptive crowd.

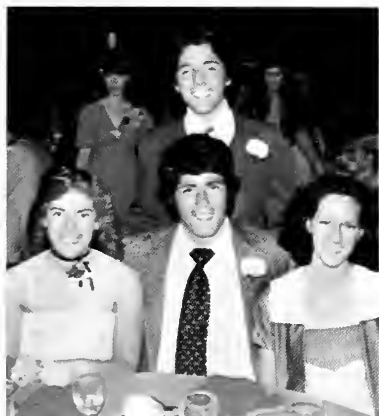

"THIS ONE'S FOR YOU"

"This One's For You" was the theme of the 1977 Homecoming Dance held in the Lindheimer Room of McCormick Place, on the lake. Nearly 200 couples danced to the music of "Sahara."

The loss of the Homecoming football game to Eureka did not prevent the formally attired couples from having a very memorable evening.

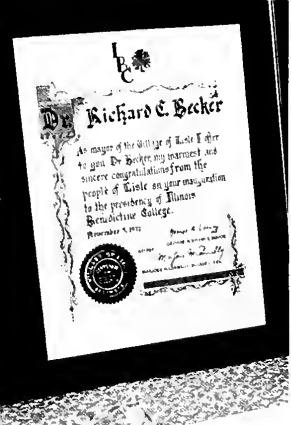

PELC BECOMES RICE CENTER

The Physical Education Learning Center officially became the Dan and Ada Rice Center Sunday, October 16, 1977, in ceremonies held in the arena area. The Rice family bequeathed the school their collection of trophies and also $500,000 from their estate.

BECKER INAUGURATED

On November 5, 1977, Dr. Richard C. Becker was officially inaugurated as president of Illinois Benedictine College and in doing so became the first lay president in the history of the college. Although he has held the office for well over a year, he felt he deserved a reasonable test of time and discouraged thoughts of an earlier inauguration.

Expounding on his past accomplishments and future goals, Dr. Becker vowed to strive for the academic and personal excellence that will form I.B.C. into an institute of high esteem.

THE

. . . PEOPLE

This is EAGLE COUNTRY™

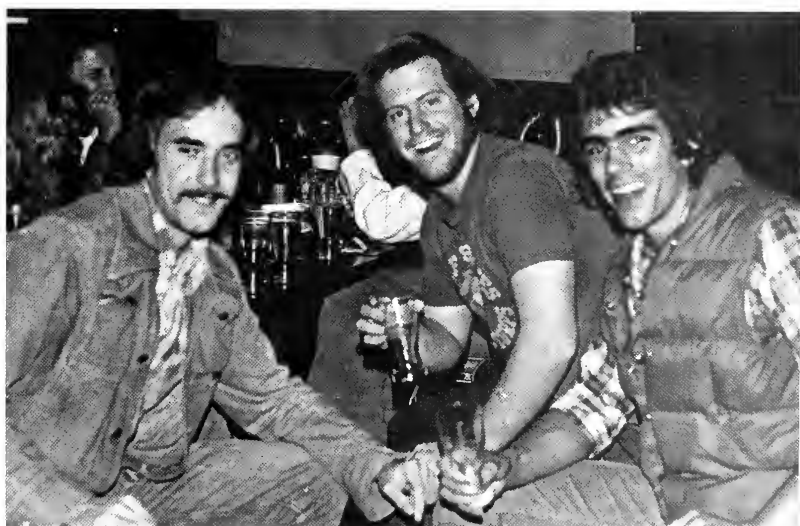

There were people playing softball, going to football and basketball games and partying. People partied at the Pub, the Halloween party in the old gym and at Hall parties. Then there were those who painted their Hall for the IHA decorating contest, and even a few who partied while studying for tests. While studying for tests???

SO IF YOU THINK YOUR LIFE IS COMPLETE CONFUSION

PT BOATS AND PANTY RAIDS

It was a "crazy kind of year" Whether you were working in the lab, taking part in the first mens panty raid or watching Dave Laz and his PT Boat bomb the slough, there was always something different to do around IBC. For a change of pace you could make a fool of yourself by getting hypnotized in front of a crowd, or participate in a game of Risk with "The Gang."

THE VOICE OF THE STUDENTS:

The Torch provided everyone with the news of the previous weeks events as well as informed everyone of upcoming parties, football games, dances, and new policies of the college. It truly was and is the voice of Illinois Benedictine College.

In 1977-1978, the Torch had two editors-in-chief. First semester Bill Lisowski was in command, but due to his graduation in the spring, passed the lead position to Bob Belter second semester. Along with the dedication of the editor-in-chief, many departmental editors and a responsible staff exhibited journalistic excellence not soon to be forgotten.

IBC'S OWN MISS UNIVERSE

LIFE IN THE PUB

WONDERLAND AMIDST THE SNOW

On February 25, 1978, the Indian Lakes Country Club of Bloomingdale was host to the Illinois Benedictine College Winter Weekend Dance. Approximately 130 couples attended the semi-formal affair which concluded the events of the traditional Winter Weekend activities.

Couples danced to the music of Aureus. The band played a wide range of music including Disco, 50's and Rock. The co-chairpersons were Mary-Gail Adams and Vicki Banks who went all out to make the dance a total success.

TONIGHT, IN THE PUB

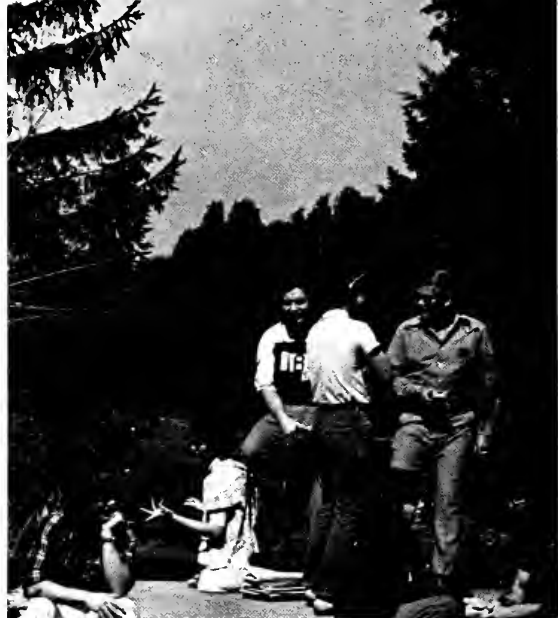

The Pub is the closest thing IBC has to a student union, and it is used accordingly. SAB usually scheduled entertainment there once a week. The acts ranged from hypnotists to singers to mimes.

Dorms used the Pub to hold beer parties, and Ondrak Hall even used it for its spring picnic. The Pub is a place to stop in for a quick beer, shoot a game of pool, or take on a future Pinball Wizard at the pinball machine.

SPRINGS HERE! THANK GOD!!

SPRING

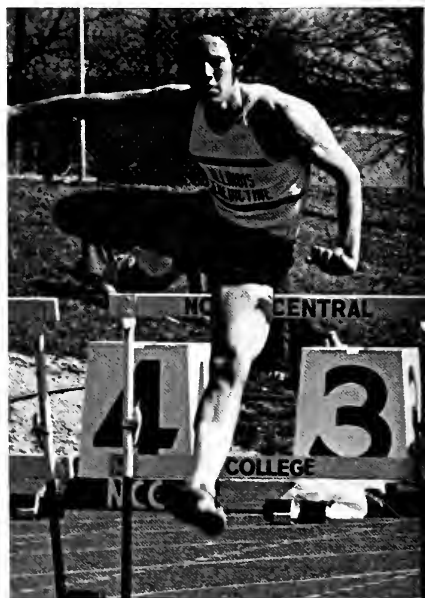

TRACK TEAM #1 INSIDE AND OUT

1978 brought yet another NAIA District 20 title to the IBC track team. The Eagles staged come from behind victories and passed by defending champion Illinois Wesleyan.

The end of the outdoor track season found IBC on top again. This being the Eagles second straight outdoor District 20 championship.

Coach Coleman was named coach of the year for an outstanding year. This is the first team in the school's history to win two district titles.

WOMENS TRACK INAUGURATED AT IBC

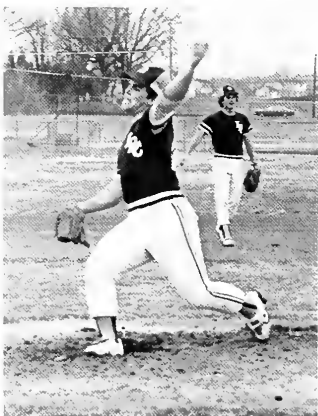

Coach Laura Bena was pleased with the performance of the first ever IBC womens track team. The women showed great enthusiasm in victories over North Central and in the invitational meet the Eagles co-hosted with North Central. Strong performers of the season were Nancy Feltz, Annette Rhodes, and Lynn Green.

DIAMONDMEN HAVE SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Illinois Benedictine College baseball team finished its 1978 season with a 28-26 record. This years team chalked up the most wins ever by an IBC baseball team. The Eagles also had four players nominated for all-District honors, Jim Deegan, Pete Mastandrea, Tom McCarthy, and Tom Chalky.

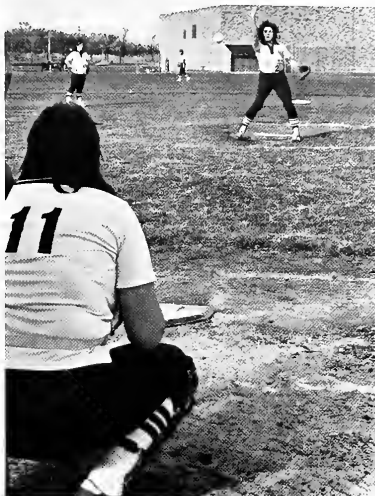

Coach Ostrowski believes the good season was due to a team effort. The Eagles have now had at least a share of the NIIC crown for the last eight years.

Safe!

WOMENS SOFTBALL SHOOTS FOR STATE TOURNEY

The strength in the 1978 womens softball team was in its infield quickness and depth. Outstanding players of the past season in the infield were: Sue Stecher, Patty Guare, Marge Paine and Vicki Banks. Although it was believed pitching would pose a problem to the Eagles, Paula Nordstrom proved to be a able hurler.

Coach Gary Moore, in his fifth season, has won all the conference titles since he has taken over. Coach Moore also believes IBC will have a representation in the nationals.

THE TURN OF ANOTHER PAGE . .

For me the world is weird because it is stupendous, awesome, mysterious, unfathomable; my interest has been to convince you that you must assume responsibility for being here, in this marvelous world, in this marvelous time. I wanted to convince you that you must learn to be here for only a short while; in fact, too short for witnessing all the marvels of it.
